

PHILIPPINE EMBASSY PRESS RELEASE

Garden setting for Philippine Embassy Diplomatic Reception on the occasion of the 113th Independence Day Celebrations

Ambassador Allarey and the officers and staff complement of the Embassy (above).

Hon. E. Ahamed, Minister of State for External Affairs of India and H.E. Ambassador Ronald B. Allarey during the singing of the respective national anthems of India and the Philippines.

Minister of State E. Ahamed and Ambassador Ronald B. Allarey

09 June 2011 – On the occasion of the 113th Philippine Independence Day with the theme “Kalayaan: Paninindingan ng Bayan”, the Philippine Embassy in New Delhi led by Ambassador Ronald B. Allarey held a Diplomatic Reception on 09 June 2011 at the extensive grounds of the Philippine Embassy Chancery. About 200 dignitaries from the diplomatic, business, academic and media community were in attendance. The Chief Guest was Hon. E. Ahamed, Minister of State for External Affairs of the Republic of India.

Guests at the Chancery grounds (above).

On 12 June, 2011 the Filipino Community in New Delhi thronged to the Embassy grounds for the traditional flag-raising ceremony (below) and the singing of the National Anthem, followed by a hearty brunch. A Celebratory Mass was also held inside the Ambassador's Residence. H.E. Ambassador Ronald B. Allarey read the Independence Day Message of H.E. President Benigno S. Aquino III. First Secretary and Consul Robert Ferrer read the Independence Day Message of Secretary Albert F. Del Rosario.

The Philippine Ambassador's Residence, New Delhi.

The Philippine Embassy Chancery, New Delhi.

END